You can mix and match furniture parts and accessories to design the perfect entertainment units, wardrobes, home office, library or commercial interior. When it comes to a personal touch, you call the shots with Ximula! The Ximula flexible system maximizes space and helps organize your lifestyle without spending a fortune. Best of all – when you move house, Ximula comes with you! This stunning system, exclusive to Majool in Western Australia, has the flexibility to suit your style and fit your pocket.

Yellow Diva

A rational thought process from architecture; an unfettered attitude from film; a vitality from fine art. Yellow Diva crosses disciplines and blurs boundaries. Born in London, Yellow Diva is the collaboration between an English architect and an Australian industrial designer/art director. Both were exploring the sculptural potential of furniture, an overlapping of interests that was to prove a natural crossover point for the two professions.

Analysis of the human body led to the development of a highly anthropomorphic line of contemporary furniture. The resulting series of chairs, stools and chaise longues reveal a distinct lineage whilst maintaining the personality of each piece. All embody the spirit of Yellow Diva: tactile, individual, beautiful; comfortable, practical, durable.

Now based in Australia and exclusive to Majool, we are proud to present the C Series Collection in an inspiring variety of colours and textures, exploiting the homogeneity of the collection and the philosophy behind it.
